

Warm Winter Soup & Hearty Bread

from

My Farmers' Kitchen

a Community-Supported Kitchen

Local farmers Tina Smith and B. Ann Lattin are gathering in the kitchen at Lattin Farms this winter to create hearty soups and breads with as many locally-grown ingredients as possible.

Sign up, and receive one quart of soup and a loaf of artisan bread or rolls every Wednesday for four weeks from January 6-27. Each week will feature a different bread and soup, and everything will be cooked fresh in the kitchen.

Meals will be available for pick-up from the Great Basin Food Co-op, 542 Plumas St, Reno, Prism Magic Clothing & Imports, 2161 Pyramid Way, Sparks, or Candylicious, 116 S. Maine St., Fallon.

My Farmers Kitchen is a project of the Great Basin Basket CSA to provide locally-grown food throughout the year.

$59 for four weeks (Late registration - $45 for three weeks)

Space is limited. Fill out the form below and mail it with a check or money order payable to Great Basin Basket CSA.

Mail registration and payment to: Ann Louhela, 3420 4th Street, Sparks, NV, 89431.
