

Our Story

Hello, we're Rick and B. Ann Lattin, proud owners of Lattin Farms. We've had the privilege to grow crops for our neighborhood farmers and organic produce for local consumers for the past 35 years.

Through the decades we've raised five children and 11 grandchildren while growing our farm from alfalfa and small grains to a local destination hot spot complete with organic produce, one of the biggest corn mazes in the U.S. and shelves of homemade jam, breads and canned goods. Our jam is made from fresh fruits, most grown right here on the farm.

We hope you enjoy our products!
